Eileen Bartell, a true animal lover. Saundra Fellerman

Matthew Shilman, pet lover. Theodore Landis

My daughter, Jeannette Clawson, who died 12-22-14, and my brother, Maurice Sarcelle, who left us Easter 2015. Ginette Clawson

My beloved husband, Dick. Jane Evans

For my lovely missed wife, Denise Hamer, who loved all animals. G.M. Hamer

My Aunt Dotte (Dorothy Gillis); she was a sweet, gentle person who has always played such an important role in my life. This is to honor her life-long love of animals. Judith Eble

Dean Bona, who passed away on January 8, 2015.

Patricia Bertorelli

Bertram "Bert" Harrison, a very dear friend.

Bernadette Malec

Our beloved cats, Miss Kitty, Hermies, & Tyvel.

Marvin Feuerberg & Sylvia Rosenfield

Jessie Batch.

Shirley & John Rice,
her daughter and son-in-law

Aileen H. Dannenberg, my beloved mother.

Audrey Dannenberg

Angel, Maude, Emmy, Snoobz, & Pete. All precious dogs who passed since spring. Beth Monks

Hazel Smith, beloved mother of Ruth Thomas, my very good friend. Shelly Hampton

My beloved Dad: Missing you on your August Birthday. Thanks for teaching us to care for the innocent ones that cannot help themselves. Love, Tammy

Sparky, my monkey; I'm still missing my little buddy. His Birthday was October 10th, and I wish him a great Birthday at Rainbow Bridge with my dog, Bear, and cat, Baby. Mommy misses you very much.

Tammy Dickson

Samson, our dear, sweet and gentle "Hemi" boy.

Jim & Nancy Gibson

All those who have left our life a lot brighter.

Pat & Richard Decker

Jesse Elkins, my beloved son.

Toni Fowler

Daisy, the sweetest little Westie who was the proud and loving leader of the Smith family for 18 years.

Lorraine Wilhide

All the animals who never felt the love. Mary-Jo Dale

My cat, Ben. He was one of the best male cats I've ever known. Being a very warm and affectionate cat, Ben not only wanted to be on my lap but wanted to be hugged and hugged. Every morning he waited for me to lift him to the table so he could get some more hands on attention while I ate breakfast. Sixteen and a half years weren't long enough.

Ernest Rederman

Pam Austrich's beloved dog, Red. Theresa Chonoski

Alley Animals

Sandy a cat I adopted from Animal Rescue's cat shelter where I volunteered. Sandy was a new arrival in the FIV section. She always followed me around as I cleaned, wanting to be petted. I think we were attracted to each other right away and within weeks she was living with my other cats and me. She was definitely Miss Personality—a very stand-out cat. Even though her life was cut short by renal failure, I know she enjoyed the 10 years with me.

Ernest Redeman

Our dear, sweet (formerly feral) cat Linky, who passed in November 2015 after bringing us 14 years of joy. We found Linky, his sister Lyola, and his mother, Ms. Kitty, living in a hole in the wall of my art studio on S. Central Ave. in 2001. Ms. Kitty passed last Christmas.

Jean, Todd, & Casi

Beloved Cassie, who has gone to cat heaven. There's a hole in my heart. Cassie was a rescue, too, who took over our home and hearts.

Ann Bernhardt

Jeanne Dunnigam, my Mom, Bill Todd, my husband. Faithful dogs: Dieter, Otto, Pommel, Opal, & Shotzie. Also, 20 felines that reside on Rainbow Ridge. August is a bittersweet month, as I miss them by my side but smile as I remember their love for me and memories shared.

Ann L. Todd

Cleo, the sweetest cat ever, and our family dog, Buttons, a wonderful beagle who lived with us for 16 years.

Sylvia Benton

Jack and Norma Norman. They are at the Rainbow Bridge taking care of their dogs, cat and other assorted critters.

Jeri Maupin

My husband Charles, who cared for every kind of homeless animal.

Mary Teague

Mr. Joseph Michael Wilson, beloved father of Ms. Dawn Wilson.

Mr. & Mrs. Edward Skinner

My sister and brother-in-law, Ruth & Mel Velten, and their precious little Yorkie, Pepper.

Maggie Hediger

Cassie, a dear, sweet cat.

Karen Richard

Buddy, a wonderful cat who was very loved.

Karen Richard

Joyce Dunnigan's dog, Trixie.

Leah Bark

Nan Owens, a resident of the Augsburg Lutheran Village. She died July 3, 2016, and devoted much effort to rescuing abused cats and dogs.

Augsburg Residents Association

Karma Two, a feral cat in our neighborhood we tried to bring into our home. We fed him and worked with him for months, but he wouldn't come in. We lost him in the snowstorm in January; it was a difficult and sad time.

Anne Cramblitt

Buster, the beautiful feral cat who showed up in our yard and was too sick to save. Fred, who turned out to be a mother cat and who died tragically. And to the feral kittens we could not save.

You are all in our hearts forever.

Mae & Rick Kondner

Beulah & Tessie Blue, Standard Poodle ladies who live on in our hearts, are sorely missed and will never be forgotten.

With love, The Thomas Families

My brother, Thomas Castillo and his beloved dog, Maverick. Tom was the maintenance supervisor at a senior retirement building for low-income residents, and he took Maverick in upon the death of one of the residents. They became a real team and enjoyed walking, riding in Tom's pick-up truck, and watching baseball on tv. Maverick succumbed to an apparent brain tumor in 2014. Tom passed away in August 2015, upbeat and fiercely independent to the end. May they rest in peace, ride with the wind, and walk together among the stars.

Poppy, my sweet girl cat, euthanized October 2014, approximately 17 years old. Despite chronic illnesses, she never lost her kitten-like ways, often racing through the house and skidding to a stop with her signature "eep" sound. In her younger years, she was a formidable wrestler, giving older brother cat, Pub, a good match every time. She was, as well, very kind to brother cat, Polo, who had come to us with serious emotional scars, until his death in 2012. Poppy was very special and is much missed.

DonnaRae Castillo

Rosalie Klatsky, a wonderful wife & mother.

Shawn & Karen Richard

Nadine Sparer, my dear friend, who regarded herself as my rescue cat Toby's aunt. She passed away the 2nd week of August 2015, after a brave battle with cancer.

Francine Jamin

Alley Animals

My Mom, Anita Charlotte Baum, gone 5 years this September 17th. I hope she is with all her beloved pets—they brought her such joy during her lifetime.

Dale Anne

Our beloved English Setter, Lydia. Like Mary Poppins, she was practically perfect in every way. Our home is now empty of all our four-footed friends. Lydia lived to be 17½ and has now gone to the Rainbow Bridge on 8-12-15. She will join Cricket, Mc Iver, Holly, Lacey, Matilda, Romeo, Mr. Gray, Clancy, Sweet Alice, Annie, Rusty, Taffy, Tyler, Toby Blitzten, Flecka, & Scotty.

We wait for our happy reunion. We were a well-traveled military family and lived 15 years in Maryland where we acquired 7 of our pets including Lydia. The others came from Mississippi, Germany, Ohio, Belgium, Massachusetts, Louisiana, and Oklahoma. Except for our three English Setters, they were all strays and all loved.

Marilyn & Bill Dlugos

Patrick, a wonderful special needs pig who lived at The Cow Sanctuary in Shiloh, NJ. He was so fortunate to have Helga, the sanctuary's director, as his devoted caregiver. He's in heaven now, finally able to romp with his friends, especially Jerry the calf, Patrick's dearest friend.

Sandy Graham

Remembering with affection, our family dogs: Puffy, Bonnie, Sammy, Artie, Herb, Stashu, Grace, and Dixie.

The Studnicki Family

The precious angels who wandered into our lives over the years—we will always have fond memories and a place in our hearts for you: Samantha, Oreo, Tabytha, Tyler, Shadow, Jimi, Hope, and Little Wheat.

Nancy Olsen & Michele Gonzalez

Andi, our little orange cat, was sixteen when she passed on. We found her, as a kitten on the street, where she was almost hit by a semi truck. She had a mind of her own and was sometimes a little terror, but we loved her. We miss her very much.

Norman & Lynn Stevenson

Isis, Felix, Cleocatra, Tiffany and Noel: my beloved cats, I miss all of you. Noel, it is much too quiet without your chatter and running around the center table for your daily exercise routine. Felix, I miss you waiting for me by the door and your daily companionship. Gone but not forgotten and always loved. Until we all meet in Heaven.

Love always, Mom Ana A. Garcia

Precious was a beautiful black poodle that lived for nineteen years with Barry and Nancy. A loving little dog that we had the pleasure to know. She will be missed so very much by her parents. May God bless her.

Norman & Lynn Stevenson

Karen Henderson, who passed away on Friday, October 16, 2015. She was a wonderful person and animal lover.

John Holdcraft

Karen Ann Henderson, a deeply caring person and dedicated advocate of rescue animals, including her own beloved feline companions.

*Neil & Joyce Wilford
Craig & Karen Martin*

My cousin, Sarah Blessing Dwyer.

Betty Mullendore

Sarah Blessing Dwyer, a caring and compassionate lady, who passed away 11/21/15.

Gail & Richard Blumenthal

William & Jean Dunham

Gina Kauffman

Carol Miller

Arthur & Marianne Schneider

Sarah B. Dwyer, who was admired and loved by many.

Christine Ellis

Sarah Blessing Dwyer, a lovely woman.

Suzanne Ruff

Dr. Robert C. Cammarata, II

James Mead

Dorothy Reagle

Lindalee Wald

Vera A. Pratt, who contributed to our world a lifetime of kindness to animals.

Wendy Camlin

Natalie & Richard Kriston

Tina Bernstine

My friend Ruth's Mom, Hazel Smith, who always loved animals.

Shelly Hampton

Rocket J. Katt, October 30, 2003 – November 19, 2015. Rocky had a purrsonality unique from all of the cats who have owned us over 30+ years. He was special in every sense of the word and is dearly missed by his favorite human, Lenny, as well as his feline shadow, Skweek. There will never be another cat quite like him. Rocky leaves behind an empty lap, an idle ball, and many happy memories.

Barry Freidly

Alley Animals

My beloved Maine coon cat, Max. He was 14 yrs. old, died from diabetes on Dec. 23, 2014, but I miss him dearly. He was a very special cat, and not only did I save his life as a kitten rescue, but he also saved my life from cancer.

He kept scratching an area of my body and constantly cried in my face for several months, until I finally went to my doctor to see if anything was wrong. He confirmed that I had pre-cancer neoplasm, grade 3-4, (next step was cancer). I had a biopsy and operation and am now clear, but if not for my Max, I would have cancer and possibly would have died by now. I hope to see you again at Rainbow Bridge. Pat Helfrich

Lt. Col. Bryce Linton (U.S. Army, Ret.), our beloved father (1925-2015). A veteran of both World War II and Vietnam, he served his country for over 30 years. He cared for his children under trying circumstances and passed along a love for animals. The world seems empty without him.

Love, Larry, Dianne, Kurt, David, and Christopher

Stan Puciul, my beloved husband, who passed away in June. He worked tirelessly to help animals every day and he had a true respect for all living beings.

Puciul

James F. Leslie, Sr. I miss you dearly. Lilly

Gretchen, beloved feline of my niece, Mary. Gretchen never moved beyond seeing me as an invading monster, so in the 4 years of her life as part of the family, I barely saw more than her whiskers, an ear, and an eye, peering at me from the doorway of her getaway room. Mary and my Dad welcomed Gretchen into their home after Mary took her from the parking lot of a local restaurant; "home" for her had been the shelter beneath a dumpster. Dad thought her name should have been Josephine, because of her "coat of many colors." Gretchen was reunited with my Dad at the Rainbow Bridge on September 10th. Lilly

Ozzie, Annie Mondell's sweet cat who recently passed after a long life. Shawn & Karen Richard

Our dear, sweet kitty, Poshy.

Sue Brebner, Partice Green & Jerry Young

In Honor Of:

Barbara & Ron Wilson's 50th Wedding Anniversary.
Bob & Sandy Miller

Alley Animals' workers, blessed with a full squadron of angels to watch over you, I am sure!

Julie Frey, Rose, & Violet

My friend, Judith Eble, in celebration of her birthday!
Dawn Griest

All the girls who take good care of the homeless mals.
Carolyn Orandle

Tigger, our new brindle mixed-breed dog, originally from Alabama; also everyone at Alley Animals.
Sue Nevins

John & Shirley Rice's wonderful cats. Jerry Rice

My sister-in-law, Virginia Foster, who loves all animals, especially her cats. Mary Jane Foster

Chortle-Cat Spenser.
Jim Cox & Cornelia Vanderlain

My aunt, Louise T. Keelty Michael T. Wyatt

My good friend, Dawn Griest. Judith Eble

Dana Wiggs, my daughter, Marilyn Tennyson

Goo-Goo, the cat. Ellen Taylor

All the precious animals who struggle to survive on the mean streets of Baltimore. Their Lives Matter! D.E.W.

Toby, my beloved rescue cat, who has defied the odds and has now survived 1.5 years, following a cancer diagnosis. Francine Jamin

Sweet Pea & Tippy, my two furry companions whom I rescued as kittens in 1998 and 2000. Doris Richard

My friend, Mary-Jo-Dale. Susan Dilts

All our rescues—Gizmo, Skyler, Bowie, Reilly, Piper, Emma, and Jaxon. We are so grateful that you got your "second" chance with us. You fill our hearts with joy and love each and every day.

All my cats.

Jo-Ann Whaite

The Alley Animals Angels who do God's work every-day.

Sharon Nardone

My friend, DonnaRae Castillo, who loves animals great and small.

Valerie Burden

To the most wonderful mother in the world.

With Love, from her children
Rosanne & Marty Horowitz

My dear husband, and our Siamese cat, Shad, who was a gift from God through my husband's illness. Shad proved to be just as, if not more important than my husband's medication.

Pat Decker

Sandra Fellerman.

Donna Fellerman

The birthday of the best mother ever, Sandra Fellerman.

Rosanne & Marty Horowitz

My niece, Mary Leslie. As you progress toward your COTA degree, I know you'll command great respect from those you encounter: your teachers, fellow students, and eventual colleagues. Surely you will contribute as much to your future patients' wellbeing and independence as you contributed to my Dad's (your beloved Grandfather). I know Dad is brightening the Heavens with his pride for you.

Lilly

Please Consider remembering Alley Animals in your Will. Animals on the streets will go on suffering, and if you have been blessed in this life we hope you will consider sharing your blessings with the least fortunate among us.
